

POST 1977 ISKCON INITIATING GURUS

FALLDOWNS, CENSURES, RETIREMENTS, ETC

FROM THE ORIGINAL 11 ZONAL ACARYA 'GURUS' WHO CLAIMED THEY WERE APPOINTED BY PRABHUPADA, BUT LATER ALL ADMITTED THEY WERE NOT APPOINTED, FAILING TO EXPLAIN HOW THEY BECAME AND CONTINUED AS DIKSA GURUS:

1. Bhagavan Das Goswami: married a disciple, abdicated
2. Bhavananda Goswami: expelled due to homosexual activity
3. Harikesa Swami: married his massage therapist, abdicated
4. Hansadutta Swami: fell down 1981-3, excommunicated, became a rtvik reformer
5. Hridayananda Goswami: retired from active service, seen with women disciples, now incognito
6. Jayatirtha Das: claimed LSD was a sacrament, decapitated by disciple
7. Kirtanananda Swami: homosexual relations with children, 8 years in prison, now deceased
8. Ramesvara Swami: caught at mall with teenage girls, returned to family, married, doing business
9. Satsvarupa Das Goswami: relations with another devotee's wife but refused to give up sannyas
10. Tamal Krishna Goswami: GBC ordered him to suspend initiations in 1980 due to his claiming to be the sole authorized ISKCON guru, after which he explained that Prabhupada never appointed gurus but only appointed rtviks. Immediately GBC re-instated him. GBC chastised and restricted him in 1996 for his involvement and promotion of Narayan Maharaj as the next ISKCON acharya. Now deceased. His PhD thesis in 2002 was about how Prabhupada had begun a new religion. Deceased March 2002.

IN 1984-1987, GBC MODIFIED ISKCON'S GURU SYSTEM, FINALLY ALLOWING RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ANY DEVOTEE WITH 5 YEARS GOOD STANDING AND WITH A NO OBJECTION VOTE AUTHORIZATION TO ACCEPT DISCIPLES (AT THEIR OWN RISK). FURTHER FALLDOWNS, CENSURES, ETC CONTINUE:
