FOREWORD

The International Society for Krishna Consciousness was established in New York in the year 1966. After my arrival in the United States in September of 1965, I personally underwent a difficult struggle, and in 1966 I rented a storefront and apartment at 26 Second Avenue. When ISKCON was incorporated, a boy named Chuck Barnett joined me, along with a few others, to form the nucleus for the institution's future development. At this time I used to chant the Hare Kṛṣṇa mahā-mantra underneath a tree in Tompkin's Square Park in New York. Śrīmān Barnett and another boy, Bruce, were the first to begin dancing in front of me, and others in the audience joined them. The New York Times published a report of this, with our picture and a headline declaring that I was attracting the younger generation to the Hare Kṛṣṇa movement.

Later both Chuck and Bruce, along with others, became my initiated disciples, and still later, in 1970, both took sannyāsa, receiving the names Acyutānanda Svāmī and Brahmānanda Svāmī. Now Brahmānanda is preaching in Africa, and Acyutānanda is preaching in India.

When I became sick in 1967, I left the United States and returned to India. Śrīmān Acyutānanda could not remain separated from me, and therefore he joined me in Vṛndāvana when I was staying there. Since then, Acyutānanda Svāmī has worked very hard in India. He has preached extensively in Calcutta and other parts of Bengal, he has learned how to sing in Bengali and play mṛdaṅga like a professional, and now he has compiled this book of Bengali songs with English explanations.

I am greatly pleased to see this collection of songs composed by Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda, Narottama dāsa and other great ācāryas of the Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇava community (sampradāya). Songs composed by the ācāryas are not ordinary songs. When chanted by pure Vaiṣṇavas who follow the rules and regulations of Vaiṣṇava character, they are actually effective in awakening the Kṛṣṇa consciousness dormant in every living entity. I have advised Śrīmān Acyutānanda Svāmī to sing more songs of the Vaiṣṇava padāvalī and record them in books so that my disciples and others in the Western countries may take advantage of this chanting and thus advance in Kṛṣṇa consciousness more and more.

I confer all my blessings upon Acyutānanda Svāmī for his genuine attempt to advance in Kṛṣṇa consciousness. I hope he will thus advance more and more and never be hampered by māyā. We should always remember the danger of māyā's influence and endeavor to save ourselves from her great power. We must therefore always merge in the transcendental mellow of kīrtana-rasa, for kīrtana-rasa is the safest situation within this material world. Hare Kṛṣṇa.

INTRODUCTION

It was my good fortune to be in the service of Śrīla Prabhupāda at Śrī Māyāpur, the birthplace of Lord Caitanya, in setting up the groundwork of our Society's international center there. That year (1971), there was a terrible flood, but although for many days the water was rising, it was diverted from flooding the society's property solely due to the embankment created by a road constructed by Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī, our Parama Guru Mahārāja. I wrote a letter to His Divine Grace explaining the situation, and I mentioned, "The water has not entered our property. Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta's road has saved us." Śrīla Prabhupāda, however, wrote back in answer in a different tone: "Yes, we are always saved by Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta's road, so go on glorifying the disciplic succession, and your life will be a great success." Later on, when I suggested writing down the songs of Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura and Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura in English translations, His Divine Grace said, "Yes, we must push on this mission of Bhaktivinoda." So here in this book, which is the first of a series of translations of the complete works of the Vaiṣṇava ācāryas in the line of succession coming after Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu, I have also included a short life sketch of Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda. In the following volumes, the lives of Śrīla Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura, Śrīnivāsa Ācārya and other Vaiṣṇava ācāryas will appear.

The songs in this book are mostly by Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda and Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura. While they may sometimes make awkward English poetry, the translations are accurate renderings of the originals. All these songs have exquisite melodies, and we are hopeful that a record may be cut to accompany the book. It should be noted that these songs and verses are all explanations of pure devotional service and that devotional service to Śrī Kṛṣṇa is obtained only by the mercy of the spiritual master, which can be obtained by serving his desires perfectly. These songs are not substitutes for the main and prime benediction of the age of Kali, the congregational chanting of Hare Kṛṣṇa, Hare Kṛṣṇa, Kṛṣṇa Kṛṣṇa, Hare Hare/ Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma Rāma, Hare Hare, which is of the utmost importance. They are verses which have expanded from the mahā-mantra and they are explanations of the mantra. Thus, because they are expansions of the mahā-mantra, they are nondifferent from it.

The songs of Śrīla Narottama dāsa and Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura are nondifferent from the Vedic mantras. But, as stated by Śrīla Prabhupāda in The Nectar of Devotion, even if someone does not have initiation into the Gāyatrī mantra, the chanting of Hare Kṛṣṇa, Hare Kṛṣṇa, Kṛṣṇa Kṛṣṇa, Hare Hare/ Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma Rāma, Hare Hare is sufficient to enable one to attain the highest perfection of spiritual life.

The verses of these songs are wonderful sources of knowledge for preachers of Kṛṣṇa consciousness. In each and every line there is so much philosophy that one can preach from one line for hours. They are all so pregnant with meaning and they lead to such succinct spiritual conclusions that a preacher need only recall the simple lines of songs like "Bhaja Huṅ re Mana," "Śrī Rūpa-mañjarī-pada," "Ohe Vaiṣṇava Ṭhākura," or the "Śrī Manaḥ Śikṣā," and every point of Kṛṣṇa consciousness will be covered in detail. Śrīla Prabhupāda is constantly quoting from these lines in his lectures and books, and here also in this book his commentaries are given. Wherever Śrīla Prabhupāda has translated a song, I have not given any of my own translations, for his are complete in themselves.

This is the first time that these transcendental vibrations have appeared in the English language, and to introduce them I am including herewith a life sketch of Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura.

A GLIMPSE INTO THE LIFE OF ṬHĀKURA BHAKTIVINODA

Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda led a life of incessant labor and activity for Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead. He produced such immense good to the world that his work is only to be compared with the unbounded works of Śrī Caitanya Himself and the Gosvāmīs. It was the spiritual attempts and divine writings of this individual that turned the scale and led the intelligent and educated community to believe in the noble precepts and teachings of Lord Caitanya.

If we look back one century, we cannot but be astonished to find how degraded was the condition of the Vaiṣṇava faith which had its pure origin in the deep and majestic spiritual philosophy of Caitanya Mahāprabhu. Even vastly learned paṇḍitas could not fathom the superexcellent precepts of Lord Caitanya's philosophy, yet due to incredulity born of the ignorance of uncultured men, the Vaiṣṇava faith had been degraded and was considered a beggar's excuse for living at the expense of society. It was by sheer love for the Godhead that Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda expounded the deep philosophy which had remained concealed in the pages of the Vedas, the Upaniṣads, the Purāṇas and the Bhāgavatam. By his action toward divine service and also by his words, set in simple language to be easily understood by readers in general, he has given this philosophy to the world. It is his writings and his divine unparalleled character that have helped to produce a class of educated and enlightened men who are now proud of their Vaiṣṇava faith and of their acquisition of the spiritual knowledge of the pure and sublime philosophy of Kṛṣṇa on which the stern teachings of Śrī Caitanya are based.

Though born in opulent circumstances (on the 2nd of September, 1838), Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda, who was given the name of Kedāranātha Datta, had to meet many difficulties in his early life. His childhood was spent at his maternal grandfather's house at Birnagar (Ulagram), from where he came to Calcutta at the age of thirteen, after the death of his father. After he completed his education, he was requested to be present at the time of his paternal grandfather's death. His grandfather, Rājavallabha Datta, had been a famous personality of Calcutta and had retired to a lonely place in Orissa to spend his last days as an ascetic. He could predict the future and knew when he would die, since he could commune with supernatural beings. Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda was present at the eventful time when that great soul passed away, and after receiving his grandfather's instructions, he visited all of the major temples and āśramas of the state of Orissa.

Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura then entered the educational service and introduced English education into the state of Orissa for the first time. He wrote a small book about all the āśramas of the state and mentioned an āśrama which was on his ancestor's property. "I have a small village Chotimangalpur in the country of Orissa of which I am the proprietor," he wrote. "In that village is a religious house which was granted by my predecessors to the holy men as a holding of rent-free land. The head of the institution entirely gave up entertaining such men as chanced to seek shelter on a rainy night. This came to my notice, and I administered a severe threat that his lands would be cruelly resumed if in the future complaints of inhospitality were brought to my knowledge." Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura later took to the government service and was transferred to Bengal. In one town he gave a historical speech on the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam which attracted the attention of thousands. He made the world know what hidden treasures pervade every page of the Bhāgavatam, which should be read by all persons having a philosophical turn of mind. He was transferred some years later to a town called Champaran. In this town there was a brahma-daitya living in a great banyan tree, and he was being worshipped by many degraded people. (A brahma-daitya is a type of ghost.) One day the father of a famous girl scholar came to Bhaktivinoda for alms, and Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura at once employed him in reading the Bhāgavatam under the shade of the banyan tree which was the abode of the ghost. After one month, the Bhāgavatam was completed, and then and there the tree crashed to the ground, and the ghost was gone for good. Everyone was thankful for this act except the few dishonest persons who were worshipping the ghost.

Bhaktivinoda's next move was to Purī. The government commissioner was much pleased to get him in his division, and he asked him to watch the affairs of the temple of Jagannātha on behalf of the government. It was through Bhaktivinoda's exertions that many malpractices were checked and the time for the offering of foods before the Deity was regulated to its extreme punctuality. Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda was especially entrusted to quell the rise against the government of one Biṣikiṣena, who declared himself to be an incarnation of Mahā-Viṣṇu. During the course of his investigation, Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda found him to be a hoax and a culprit and charged him with transgressing government injunctions. After his trial the fellow was sentenced to imprisonment for a year and a half, but he died shortly after in jail. This man was really possessed of unnatural powers, but as they were the outcome of nonspiritual practices, he had to submit to the Ṭhākura when the latter wanted him to do so. Biṣikiṣena was held in dread by the common people, and everyone warned Śrīla Bhaktivinoda not to admonish him, even for the sake of justice, in view of the serious consequences that the yogī would inflict. But although the Ṭhākura was not a man of ostentation and did not allow people to know his true qualities and spiritual strength, he easily cut down the demoniac power of the imposter. With the fall of Biṣikiṣena there rose an imposter Balarāma at another village, and there were also other so-called incarnations of God, but their plans were similarly frustrated.

During his stay at Jagannātha Purī, Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda devoted much of his time to the discussion of spiritual works and prepared notes on the Vedānta-sūtras which were published with the commentaries of Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa. He also composed the "Kalyāṇa-kalpataru" (from which "Vibhāvarī Śeṣa," one selection, appears in this book). This may very truly be termed an immortal work, and it stands on the same level as the divine writings of Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura. In 1857 He left Purī on government service and started a well-known spiritual journal called the Sajjana-toṣaṇī ("The Satisfaction of Pure Devotees"). He also published the Śrī Kṛṣṇa-sarṅhitā, which revealed to the world the underlying philosophy explaining the spiritual existence of Kṛṣṇa. This book opened the eyes of educated people to teach them their true relationship with God. It also attracted the admiration of many German scholars, for although the public regarded Kṛṣṇa as a poetic creation of erotic nature, Śrīla Bhaktivinoda revealed Kṛṣṇa as Parabrahman, the Supreme Transcendental Person, the Absolute Being, on the basis of Vedic evidence.

At the close of his stay at the village of Narail, he visited Vṛndāvana. There he had to encounter a band of dacoits known as Kanjharas. These powerful bandits spread all over the roads surrounding the holy place and used to attack innocent pilgrims. Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura brought this news to the government and after many months of struggle extirpated the bandits from Vṛndāvana forever. From this time on Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda preached extensively in large gatherings, explaining all of the precepts of the saṅkīrtana of the holy names, Hare Kṛṣṇa, Hare Kṛṣṇa, Kṛṣṇa Kṛṣṇa, Hare Hare / Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma Rāma, Hare Hare.

While staying at Barasat, Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda met the famous Bengali writer Baṅkimacandra. This novelist and playwright had just finished writing a book on Kṛṣṇa, and knowing Śrīla Bhaktivinoda to be an authority on topics of Kṛṣṇa, he gave the manuscript to Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura to see. It was full of mundane Western stylized speculations and ideas, but after four days of discussion, Bhaktivinoda had the whole text revised by Baṅkimacandra to accommodate the pure supra-mundane precepts of Lord Caitanya. During his last year at Barasat, Bhaktivinoda was requested by a noted high court judge to publish an authoritative edition of the Śrīmad Bhagavad-gītā with the commentaries of Śrī Viśvanātha Cakravartī Ṭhākura as well as his own (Bhaktivinoda's) translation. The preface, written by Baṅkimacandra, expressed his gratitude to the Ṭhākura for his endeavor, and when it was published, the copies were soon exhausted. Then Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda published a unique work entitled Śrī Caitanya-śikṣāmṛta, (The Nectarean Teachings of Lord Caitanya) which dealt with Lord Caitanya's theistic philosophy and the philosophies of the Western speculators. This book defeats every other philosophy point for point and establishes the philosophy of Lord Caitanya as supreme. In 1885 he started a society named Śrī-Viśva-Vaiṣṇava-Sabhā for the propagation of pure hari-bhakti. Many eminent citizens of Calcutta joined the society, and several committees were organized with assigned duties.

Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura was so anxious to see the land of Lord Caitanya that he applied many times for a transfer to any town nearby. Upon not receiving the desired transfer, he formally submitted a resignation from public service, but it was refused. Then, to his great rejoicing, he obtained a transfer to Kṛṣṇa-nāgara, twenty-five miles from Navadvīpa, Māyāpur. Once stationed at a place near Navadvīpa, he did not let a single free moment pass without visiting the land of Navadvīpa. He at once made inquiries about the exact whereabouts of the different places of Lord Caitanya's pastimes. He soon discovered that the then city of Navadvīpa was only a town of 100 years' standing, so he was curious to locate the actual birthplace of Lord Caitanya. He was convinced that the town of Navadvīpa was not the authentic location. He at once commenced a vigorous inquiry to find the truth of the matter, but he could not easily escape from the people who tried to make him believe that the birthplace of Caitanya was at that town. Then, after careful inquiry, he was told that the site was lost under the shifting course of the Ganges. Not satisfied with this explanation, he himself set out to discover the yoga-pīṭha (birthplace). After great difficulties, he came to know of a place which was being adored by many realized souls as the true birthplace of Śrī Caitanya Mahāprabhu and which was then in the possession of the Mohammedans. Local inquiry and corroborative evidence from ancient maps of the latter part of the 18th Century which showed the name "Śrī Māyāpur" at last helped him to discover the real site of the birthplace. The discovery led to the publishing of a valuable work called Navadvīpa- dhāma-māhātmya. (Chapter Five of this book has appeared in ISKCON's Bengali Back to Godhead Magazine.)

The year 1887 was the most eventful year in the history of the Vaiṣṇava world, and Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura was the prime mover of the events. It was in this year that he discovered the actual place of Lord Caitanya's birth, which was given up for lost. Thousands of visitors were present at a function held at the spot. Just after retirement from government service, Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda himself, in a spirit of perfect humility and with a view to giving a firm standing to the discovery, went from door to door to raise funds for a temple. In the Amrita Bazar Patrika newspaper, on the 6th of December, 1894, the following article appeared: "Bābu Kedāranātha Datta, the distinguished Deputy Magistrate who has just retired from the service, is one of the most active members. Indeed, Bābu Kedāranātha Datta has been deputed by his committee to raise subscriptions in Calcutta and elsewhere and is determined to go from house to house if necessary and beg a rupee from each Hindu gentleman for the noble purpose. If Bābu Kedāranātha Datta sticks to his resolution of going around with a bag in hand, we hope that no Hindu gentleman whose house may be honoured by the presence of such a devout bhakta as Bābu Kedāranātha will send him away without contributing his mite, however humble it may be, to the Gaura-Viṣṇupriyā Temple fund." Truly, Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda honored the houses of many persons for the fulfillment of the noble object he had undertaken. He went to persons to whom he would not have gone for any purpose but for this mission of Lord Caitanya, and his efforts were not fruitless, since the sum collected contributed to the construction of a building on the holy site of Lord Caitanya's appearance.

The work of preaching the holy name was also in full swing, and it spread fast into the distant corners of the globe. The Gaurāṅga-smaraṇa-maṅgala-stotra, with a preface in English containing the life and precepts of Śrī Caitanya, came out from Bhaktivinoda's pen soon after the discovery of Lord Caitanya's birthplace and found its place in all the learned institutions of both hemispheres.

The more the names of Lord Caitanya and Lord Kṛṣṇa were preached, the merrier was Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda. He thereafter made annotations of Śrī Brahma-saṁhitā and Śrī Kṛṣṇa-karṇāmṛta and gave to the world his immortal and precious works Śrī Hari-nāma-cintāmaṇi and Bhajana-rahasya. He also edited, with commentary, Śrīmad Bhāgavatārka-marīci-mālā, which contains all the most prominent *śloka*s of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam pertaining to the Vaiṣṇava philosophy. His pen never tired, and it produced many other Vaiṣṇava philosophical works. He would begin his writings very late at night, after completing his government work, and stay up until one or two o'clock in the morning composing songs and literatures. Most of his works appeared in the Sajjana-toṣaṇī magazine (which will be translated shortly). He was equally engaged in writing and in preaching the holy name in many districts of Bengal. His personal appearances at villages had marvellous effects on the people. To maintain the center at Nadia he built a house at Śrī Godruma-dvīpa which is called Śrī-Svānanda-Sukhada-Kuñja. Here in this abode the preaching of hari-nāma continued in full swing.

It was at the beginning of the 20th Century that he chose to live at Purī and build a house on the beach-front there. Many honest souls sought his blessings and readily obtained them when he retired to the fourth order of life by taking sannyāsa from Śrī Jagannātha dāsa Bābājī in 1908. Though he was leading the life of a renounced soul, he could not avoid the men of all description who constantly visited him. All of them received oceans of spiritual training, instructions and blessings. In 1910 he shut himself up and remained in a perfect state of samādhi, or full concentration on the eternal pastimes of the Lord. In 1914 he passed on to the blissful realm of Goloka on the day which is observed as the disappearance day of Śrī Gadādhara. Here we quote a stanza written on the samādhi of Haridāsa Thākura which Śrīla Bhaktivinoda wrote sometime in 1871 to explain what influence a Vaiṣṇava carries in this world even after his departure:

He reasons ill who tells that Vaiṣṇavas die
When thou art living still in sound!
The Vaiṣṇavas die to live, and living try
To spread the holy name around!

Śrīla Bhaktivinoda predicted, "Soon there will appear a personality who will preach the holy name of Hari all over the world." It is clearly understood that His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda is that personality. I offer my prostrated obeisances first unto all the devotees that have surrendered unto his divine lotus feet and next unto the devotees who will in the future take shelter of his lotus feet, and I then offer my humble obeisances unto his lotus feet again and again. May he bless this first translation attempt so that it may be accepted by the Lord Śrī Kṛṣṇa, and may he engage me in the service of the six Gosvāmīs of Vṛndāvana, Lord Caitanya and Rādhārāṇī.

ŚRĪ-ŚRĪ-GURV-AṢṬAKA

(Eight Prayers Glorifying the Spiritual Master)

by Śrīla Viśvanātha Cakravartī Ṭhākura

Śrīla Viśvanātha Cakravartī Ṭhākura, who appeared in the latter half of the 17th Century, is a great spiritual master in the Kṛṣṇa conscious chain of gurus and disciples. He says that one should loudly chant the following eight prayers, with care and attention, during brāhma-muhūrta, the auspicious time an hour and a half before sunrise when devotional practices are especially potent. Anyone who thus chants these eight beautiful prayers glorifying the spiritual master will certainly get a chance to render direct service to Kṛṣṇa, the Lord of Vṛndāvana, after the demise of his body.

1) *saṁsāra-dāvānala-līḍha-loka-

I offer my respectful obeisances unto the lotus feet of such a spiritual master, who is an ocean of auspicious qualities.”

“By the mercy of the spiritual master one receives the benediction of Kṛṣṇa. Without the grace of the spiritual master, one cannot make any advancement. Therefore, I should always remember and praise the spiritual master. At least three times a day I should offer my respectful obeisances unto the lotus feet of my spiritual master.”

I offer my respectful obeisances unto the six Gosvāmīs, namely, Śrī Rūpa Gosvāmī, Śrī Sanātana Gosvāmī, Śrī Raghunātha Bhaṭṭa Gosvāmī, Śrī Raghunātha dāsa Gosvāmī, Śrī Jīva Gosvāmī and Śrī Gopāla Bhaṭṭa Gosvāmī, who are always engaged in chanting the holy name of Kṛṣṇa and dancing. They are just like the ocean of love of God, and they are popular both with the gentle and with the ruffians because they are not envious of anyone. Whatever they do, they are all-pleasing to everyone, and they are fully blessed by Lord Caitanya. Thus they are engaged in missionary activities meant to deliver all the conditioned souls in the material universe.

Thus they are honored all over the three worlds, and they are worth taking shelter of because they are absorbed in the mood of the gopīs and are engaged in the transcendental loving service of Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa.

They can purify all conditioned souls from the reactions of their sinful activities by pouring upon them transcendental songs about Govinda. As such, they are very expert in increasing the limits of the ocean of transcendental bliss, and they are the saviors of the living entities from the devouring mouth of liberation.

In order to deliver the poor conditioned souls, they accepted loincloths, treating themselves as mendicants, but they are always merged in the ecstatic ocean of the gopīs' love for Kṛṣṇa and bathe always and repeatedly in the waves of that ocean.

The Gosvāmīs are perfectly competent to bestow upon the living entities the greatest boon of the goal of life.

In this way they utilized their valuable lives, and in executing these devotional activities they conquered over eating and sleeping and were always meek and humble, enchanted by remembering the transcendental qualities of the Lord.

There they appeared just like madmen in the full ecstasy of love for Kṛṣṇa, exhibiting different transcendental symptoms in their bodies, and they were merged in the ecstasy of Kṛṣṇa consciousness.

O Lalitā! O son of Nanda Mahārāja! Where are you all now? Are you just on the hill of Govardhana, or are you under the trees on the bank of the Yamunā? Where are you?” These were their moods in executing Kṛṣṇa consciousness.

LORD CAITANYA'S MISSION

Lord Caitanya Mahāprabhu instructed His disciples to write books on the science of Kṛṣṇa, a task which His followers have continued to carry out down to the present day. The elaborations and expositions on the philosophy taught by Lord Caitanya are, in fact, the most voluminous, exacting, and consistent, due to the system of disciplic succession. Although Lord Caitanya was widely renowned as a scholar in His youth, He left only eight verses, called Śikṣāṣṭaka. These eight verses clearly reveal His mission and precepts. These supremely valuable prayers are translated herein.

ŚRĪ-ŚRĪ-ŚIKṢĀṢṬAKA

1) ceto-darpaṇa-mārjanam bhava-mahā-dāvāgni-nirvāpaṇam śreyaḥ-kairava-candrikāvitaranam vidyā-vadhū-jīvanam ānandāmbudhi-varadhanam pratipadam pūrṇāmṛtāsvādanam sarvātma-snapanam param vijayate śrī-kṛṣṇa-saṅkīrtanam

Glory to the Śrī Kṛṣṇa saṅkīrtana, which cleanses the heart of all the dust accumulated for years and extinguishes the fire of conditional life, of repeated birth and death. This saṅkīrtana movement is the prime benediction for humanity at large because it spreads the rays of the benediction moon. It is the life of all transcendental knowledge. It increases the ocean of transcendental bliss, and it enables us to fully taste the nectar for which we are always anxious.

2) nāmnām akāri bahu-dhā nija-sarva-śaktis tatrārpitā niyamitaḥ smaraṇe na kālaḥ etādṛśī tava kṛpā bhagavan mamāpi durdaivam īdṛśam ihājani nānurāgaḥ

O my Lord, Your holy name alone can render all benediction to living beings, and thus You have hundreds and millions of names like Kṛṣṇa and Govinda. In these transcendental names You have invested all Your transcendental energies. There are not even hard and fast rules for chanting these names. O my Lord, out of kindness You enable us to easily approach You by Your holy names, but I am so unfortunate that I have no attraction for them.

3) *trṇād api sunīcena
taror api sahiṣṇunā
amāninā mānadena
kīrtanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ*

One should chant the holy name of the Lord in a humble state of mind, thinking oneself lower than the straw in the street; one should be more tolerant than a tree, devoid of all sense of false prestige and should be ready to offer all respects to others. In such a state of mind one can chant the holy name of the Lord constantly.

4) *na dhanam na janam na sundaram
kavitam va jagad-isa kamaye
mama janmani janmanisvare
bhavatad bhaktir ahaituki tvayi*

O almighty Lord, I have no desire to accumulate wealth, nor do I desire beautiful women, nor do I want any number of followers. I only want Your causeless devotional service birth after birth.

5) ayi nanda-tanuja kin-karam patitam mam visame bhavambudhau krpayā tava pāda-paṅkaja-sthita-dhūli-saḍṣam vicintaya

O son of Mahārāja Nanda (Kṛṣṇa), I am Your eternal servitor, yet somehow or other I have fallen into the ocean of birth and death. Please pick me up from this ocean of death and place me as one of the atoms at Your lotus feet.

6) *nayanam galad-asru-dhārayā
vadanam gadgada-ruddhayā girā pulkair nicitam vapuḥ kadā
tava nāma-grahaṇe bhaviṣyati*

O my Lord, when will my eyes be decorated with tears of love flowing constantly when I chant Your holy name? When will my voice choke up, and when will the hairs of my body stand on end at the recitation of Your name?

7) *yugāyitam nimeṣeṇa
cakṣuṣā prāvṛṣāyitam
śūnyāyitam jagat sarvam
govinda-virahaṇa me*

O Govinda! Feeling Your separation, I am considering a moment to be like twelve years or more. Tears are flowing from my eyes like torrents of rain, and I am feeling all vacant in the world in Your absence.

8) *āśliṣya vā pāda-ratam pinaṣtu mam
adarsanam marma-hatam karotu vā yathā tathā vā vidadhātu lampaṭo
mat-prāṇa-nāthas tu sa eva nāparaḥ*

I know no one but Kṛṣṇa as my Lord, and He shall remain so even if He handles me roughly by His embrace or makes me brokenhearted by not being present before me. He is completely free to do anything and everything, for He is always my worshipful Lord unconditionally.

Lord Gaurāṅga's shimmering golden features danced, and His footbells jingled. 3) All the devotees chanted the names Mukunda, Mādhava, Yādava and Hari, their mouths being filled with the vibrations. They would announce to the still sleeping people, "You spend your nights uselessly sleeping and your days decorating your bodies! 4) You have achieved such a rare human body, but you do not care for this gift. You remain not serving the darling of Yaśodā and slowly fall through your last moments to death. 5) With every rising and setting of the sun, a day passes and is lost. Then, why do you remain idle and not serve the Lord of the heart? 6) This temporary life is full of various miseries. There is nothing but the name to be had in the fourteen worlds. It has filled the soul of Śrī Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura.

Sing the nectarean names of Gaurāṅga!
O my Lord, please engage me in Your loving service.
Sing the nectarean names of Gaurāṅga!

Whether you are a householder or a sannyāsī, constantly chant Hari, Hari! Forget about happiness and sorrow and fill your lips with hari-nāma.

You are bound up in the ocean of māyā and are forced to toil fruitlessly. But as soon as you come to your senses, immediately shout out the names of Rādhā-Mādhava.

Without serving the Lord of the senses [Hṛṣīkeśa] you are as good as a dead man. Take the advice of Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura: just once relish the nectar of the holy name.

GOPĪNĀTHA!

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura

part 1

gopīnātha, mama nivedana śūno viṣayī durjana, sadā kāma-rata, kichu nāhi mora guṇa

O Gopīnātha, Lord of the gopīs, please hear my prayer. I am a materialistic rascal, always full of lust. I have no good qualifications.

*gopīnātha, āmāra bharasā tumi
tomāra caraṇe, loinu śaraṇa, tomāra kiṅkoro āmi*

O Gopīnātha! You are my only resort. As Your eternal servant, I take shelter of Your lotus feet.

gopīnātha, kemone śodhibe more nā jāni bhakati, karme jaḍamati, poḍechi soṁsāra-ghore

O Gopīnātha! How can I uplift myself? I don't know anything regarding devotional service. I am weakminded and have fallen into a pit of illusion.

gopīnātha, sakali tomāra māyā nāhi mama bolo, jñāna sunirmalo, svādhīna nahe e kāyā

O Gopīnātha! Everything here is but Your illusory energy. I have no power or pure knowledge, and I am bound by a material body.

*gopīnātha, niyata caraṇe sthāna
māge e pāmara, kāṅḍiyā kāṅḍiyā, korohe karuṇā dāna*

O Gopīnātha! I desire to remain always at Your lotus feet. Please take this sinner, weeping and weeping, and show me Your mercy.

gopīnātha, tumi to' sakali pāra durjane tārite, tomāra śakati, ke āche pāpīra āra

O Gopīnātha! You can do anything. You have purified the most wicked by Your power, but who is more wicked than me?

gopīnātha, tumi kṛpā pārabāra jīvera kāraṇe, āsiyā prapañce, līlā koile suvistāra

*gopīnātha, āmi ki doṣe doṣī
asura sakala, pāilo caraṇa, vinoda thākilo bosī'*

*gopīnātha, ghucāo saṁsāra-jvālā
avidyā-yātanā, āro nāhi sohe, janama-maraṇa-mālā*

gopīnātha, āmi to' kāmera dāsa viṣaya-vāsanā, jāgiche hṛdoye, phāṅdiche karama phāṅsa

gopīnātha, kabe vā jāgiba āmi kāma-rūpa ari, dūre teyagibo, hṛdoye sphuribe tumi

gopīnātha, āmi to' tomāra jana tomāre chāḍiyā, saṁsāra bhajinu, bhuliyā āpana-dhana

O Gopīnātha! You are the vessel of kindness. You enter into this mundane world and display Your sublime pastimes for the sake of the fallen souls.

O Gopīnātha! I am the sinner of sinners. Yet I sit waiting for You to take me, for many demons have attained Your lotus feet.

part 2

O Gopīnātha! Destroy the miseries of this world! I am strung on a necklace of births and deaths and cannot bear the kicking of māyā.

O Gopīnātha! I am a servant of lust, entangled in the net of material desire which has sprung up in my heart.

O Gopīnātha! When will I wake up and cast this enemy of lust far from me? Then only will You be revealed to me in my heart.

O Gopīnātha! I am Your own. By leaving Your lotus feet, forgetting Your treasures, I have served only māyā.

gopīnātha, tumi to' sakali jāna āpanāra jane, daṇḍiyā ekhona, śrī-caraṇe deho sthāna

*gopīnātha, ei ki vicāra tava vimukha dekhiyā, chāḍa nija-jane,
nā koro'karuṇā-lava*

gopīnātha, āmi to' murakha ati kise bhālo hoy, kabhu nā bujhinu, tāi heno mama gati

*gopīnātha, tumi to' paṇḍita-boro mūḍhera maṅgala, tumi anveṣibe,
e dāse nā bhāva paro*

*gopīnātha, āmāra upāya nāi
tumi kṛpā kori' āmāre loile, soṁsāre uddhāra pāi*

*gopīnātha, poḍechi māyāra phere
dhana dārā suta, ghireche āmāre, kāmete rekheche jere*

O Gopīnātha! You know everything. Take me to Your lotus feet and punish Your servant.

O Gopīnātha! Is it to Your liking to reject me and not show me Your kindness?

O Gopīnātha! I am the greatest fool. I don't at all know what is good for me. I cannot understand anything. This is my fate.

O Gopīnātha! You are the greatest intellect. Not considering that I am Your servant, judge me without bias.

part 3

O Gopīnātha! I have no means of benefiting myself. By Your mercy and kindness, please pick me up from this miserable world and take me to You.

O Gopīnātha! I have fallen into this dark world. Bound by wealth, wife and sons, I am feeling the pain of lust.

*gopīnātha, mana ye pāgala mor
nā māne śāsana, sadā acetana, viṣaye ro yeche ghora*

gopīnātha, hāra ye menechi āmi aneka yatana, hoilo biphala, ekhona bharasā tumi

gopīnātha, kemone hoibe gati prabala indriya, vaśībhūta mana, nā chāḍe viṣaya-rati

gopīnātha, hṛdoye bosiyā mora manake śamiyā, loha nija pāne, ghucibe vipada ghora

gopīnātha, anātha dekhiyā more tumi hṛṣīkeśa, hṛṣīka damiyā, tār'he sarṁṣṭi-ghore

gopīnātha, golāya legeche phāṁsa kṛpā-asi dhori', bandhana chediyā, vinode koroha dāsa

O Gopīnātha! I am going mad! Never caring for spiritual practices, I am always unconscious and deeply sunk in the muck of sense gratification.

O Gopīnātha! I surrender unto You. All my endeavors are a useless waste of time. Now I surrender unto You.

O Gopīnātha! How shall I reach the goal? My mind is overwhelmed by the powerful senses. I cannot shake off attachment to worldly pleasures.

O Gopīnātha! Please reside in my heart. Destroy these dangerous obstacles, correct my mind and guide me to Your own true path.

O Gopīnātha! Please let Your glance fall on me. I am helpless, but You are Hṛṣīkeśa, the Lord of the senses. Please control my senses and pull me out of this world of dangers.

Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura prays:

O Gopīnātha! My voice is faltering. I must throw off these shackles and catch hold of Your mercy.

karuṇā nā hoile, kāṇḍiyā kāṇḍiyā, prāṇa nā rākhibo āra*

Gurudeva, give to this servant just one drop of mercy. I am lower than a blade of grass. Give me all help. Give me strength. Let me be as you are, without desires or aspirations.

I offer you all respects, for thus I may have the energy to know you correctly. Then, by chanting the holy name in great ecstasy, all my offenses will cease.

When will such mercy fall to this one who is weak and devoid of intelligence? Allow me to be with you.

If you examine me, you will find no qualities. Your mercy is all that I am made of. If you are not merciful unto me, I can only weep, and I will not be able to maintain my life.

O Lord, this material body is a place of ignorance, and the senses are a network of paths to death. Somehow, we have fallen into this ocean of material sense enjoyment, and of all the senses the tongue is most voracious and uncontrollable; it is very difficult to conquer the tongue in this world. But You, dear Kṛṣṇa, are very kind to us and have given us such nice prasāda, just to control the tongue. Now we take this prasāda to our full satisfaction and glorify You Lord–Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa—and in love call for the help of Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda.

One day at Śāntipura in Śrī Advaita's house, Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda were seated at prasāda. When Lord Caitanya tasted the green vegetables, He said, "My devotees, this śāk is so delicious! Lord Kṛṣṇa has definitely tasted it. Such śāk as this, when tasted, will give you a taste of kṛṣṇa-prema." The devotees forgot their materialistic conceptions and took prasāda shouting, "Hari boll Hari boll Hari boll"

RĀDHĀ-MĀDHAVA

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura

*rādhā-mādhava kuñja-bihārī gopī-jana-vallabha giri-vara-dhārī yaśodā-nandana braja-jana-rañjana
yāmuna-tīra-vana-cārī*

Śrī Rādhā-Mādhava have their loving pastimes in the groves (kuñja) of Vṛndāvana. Gopī-jana-vallabha means "one who attracts and reciprocates loving pastimes with the gopīs. Giri-vara-dhārī is Kṛṣṇa's name in the pastime of lifting Govardhana Hill. Yaśodā-nandana is the son of Yaśodā ("nanda" means son and is also the name of Kṛṣṇa's father, so Kṛṣṇa is also Nanda-nandana). Braja-jana-rañjana means the attractive darling of the inhabitants of Vṛndāvana. He is always playing in the groves (vana) of the bank (tīra) of the Yamunā River. Therefore Kṛṣṇa is also known as Yāmuna-tīra-vana-cārī.

(Śrīla Prabhupāda is very fond of this song and sings it just before his lectures. In Allahabad and Gorakhpur Śrīla Prabhupāda fell into a trance after singing the first two lines, and after some time he came back into external consciousness and said, "Now just chant Hare Kṛṣṇa." Śrīla Prabhupāda says that this song is "a picture of Vṛndāvana. Everything is there—Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, Vṛndāvana, Govardhana, Yaśodā and all the cowherd boys.")

(Note—These next two songs of Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura are written under the heading of Siddhi-lālasā. Lālasā means “to hanker in great expectation,” and siddhi means “perfection.” Hankering in great expectation to achieve a perfectional stage is called Siddhi-lālasā. A devotee never has any desire for material enjoyment, heavenly birth, mystical powers, liberation or even the four superior stages of liberation such as attaining equal opulence to the Lord, having the same form as Lord Viṣṇu, always being in the presence of the Lord, or living on the same planet as the Lord in the spiritual sky. The hankering of the pure devotee is simply that he will become the servant of the Lord unconditionally. That perfectional stage is the stage to be desired).

SIDDHI-LĀLASĀ

When, oh when, will I chant on the bank of the Ganges in the land of Navadvīpa? O Rādhā, O Kṛṣṇa, when will I wander among the creepers and trees with tears in my eyes and forget my bodily comforts? When will I be satisfied by taking some food from the untouchable men who live here and there and by drinking the water of the Sarasvatī? When will I roll to and fro on the banks of the river, raising an uproar of “Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa!” When will I bow down to the inhabitants of the holy place of Navadvīpa and obtain a bit of their mercy? When will I wear the dress of the paramahamsas and wear the dust of the feet of the Vaiṣṇavas on my body? When will I see the inhabitants of Navadvīpa as nondifferent from the inhabitants of Vṛndāvana, and when shall I become a Vrajavāsī, too? When will I see the true form of the transcendental realm opening before my eyes, and when will I attain the service of Śrī Rādhārāṇī?

KABE HA'BE BOLO
(Invocation of the Holy Name)
by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura

- 1) kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār
(āmār) aparādha ghuci', śuddha nāme ruci, kṛpā-bole ha'be hṛdoye sañcār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār
- When, oh when will that day be mine?
When my offenses ceasing, taste for the name increasing,
when in my heart will your mercy shine,
when, oh when will that day be mine?
- 2) ṭṛṇādhika hīn, kabe nije māni',
sahiṣṇutā-guṇa hṛdoyete āni'
sakale mānada, āpani amānī,
ho'ye āsvādibo nāma-rasa-sār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār
- Lower than a blade of grass, more tolerant than a tree.
When will my mind attain this quality?
Respectful to all, not expecting their honour,
then shall I taste the name's nectar sublime.
When, oh when will that day be mine?
- 3) dhana jano ār, kavītā sundarī,
bolibo nā cāhi deho sukhakorī
janme-janme dāo, ohe gaurahari! ahoitukī bhakti caraṇe tomār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār
- Great wealth or followers, feminine beauty,
I won't care for them or the comforts of my body.
Birth after birth give me, Oh Lord Caitanya, causeless devotion to Your feet divine,
when, oh when will that day be mine?
- 4) (kabe) korite śrī-kṛṣṇa-, nāma 'uccāraṇa,
pulakito deho gadgada vacana
vaivarṇya-vepathu, ha'be saṁghaṭana, nirantara netre va'be aśru-dhār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār
- When will I utter Kṛṣṇa, Kṛṣṇa, Kṛṣṇa, with words choked up and shivering body?
When will I be trembling all over,
lose bodily color, tears pouring from my eyes,
When, oh when will that day be mine?

5) *kabe navadvīpe, suradhunī-taṭe, gaura-nityānanda boli' niṣkapaṭe
nāciyā gāiyā, veḍāibo chuṭe, bātulera prāy chāḍiyā vicār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār*

When in Navadvīpa along with Ganges bank, shouting 'Gaura-Nityānanda' as a surrendered soul,
dancing, chanting, running everywhere,
when will I become half mad of mind?
When, oh when will that day be mine?

6) *kabe nityānanda, more kori' doyā, chāḍāibe mora viṣayera māyā
diyā more nija-, caraṇera chāyā, nāmera hāṭete dibe adhiḱār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār*

When will Lord Nityānanda show mercy upon me,
when will I reject the world of māyā?
Bestow unto me the shade of Your lotus feet,
let the right to preach the name be mine.
When, oh when will that day be mine?

7) *kinibo, luṭibo, hari-nāma-rasa, nāma-rase māti' hoibo vivaśā
rasera rasika-, caraṇa paraśā, koriyā majibo rase anibār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār*

I will beg, borrow, or steal the nectar of the name.
By the name's effect I will feel paralyzed.
Oh! Enjoyer of the nectar of the name,
When will I touch your lotus feet till the end of time?
When, oh when will that day be mine?

8) *kabe jīve doyā, hoibe udoya,
nija-sukha bhuli' sudīna-hṛdoya
bhaktivinod, koriyā vinoya, śrī-ājñā-ṭahala koribe pracār
kabe ha'be bolo se-din āmār*

When kindness to all beings will be appearing,
with free heart forget myself comforting, Bhaktivinoda in all humility prays,
"Now I will set out to preach Your order sublime."
When, oh when will that day be mine?

4) *mṛdaṅga-vādya, śūnite mana,

1) The dust of the lotus feet of pure devotees, enthusiastic devotional service, and service to the pure devotees of the highest order are the roots of the creeper of devotion. 2) The holy days like Ekādaśī and Janmāṣṭamī are the mother of devotion for those devotees who respect them. Let the holy places of Kṛṣṇa's pastimes be my places of worship, and bless me. 3) May I always visit all the holy places associated with the līlā of Lord Caitanya and His devotees. 4) When I hear the sound of the mṛdaṅga in my heart I always desire to join in kīrtana; and when I hear the bonafide songs describing Lord Caitanya's pastimes, my heart dances in ecstasy.

- 5) *yugala-mūrti, dekhiyā mora,

5) Whenever I see the transcendental śrī-vigrahas of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa I am in bliss, for by taking Their Lordships' prasāda we can conquer over the material elements. 6) One day while performing devotional practices, I saw my house transformed into Goloka Vṛndāvana. When I take the caraṇāmṛta of the Deity, I see the holy Ganges waters that come from the feet of Lord Viṣṇu, and my bliss knows no bounds. 7) By seeing the tulasī tree my heart feels joy, and Lord Mādhava (Kṛṣṇa) is also satisfied. When I eat the prasāda favored by Lord Caitanya it is a new life's experience. (Lord Caitanya was very fond of a green vegetable preparation called śāk, and there is another song in this book that tells of the amazing effects of this type of prasāda.) 8) Bhaktivinoda concludes by saying: "Whosoever attains the stage of enthusiasm for these devotional practices will be supremely blissful wherever he may be."

Now come down to the hall." 3) The holder of Govardhana Hill sits down next to Śrī Baladeva and all His friends, 4) and they are served with a feast of śuktā (a bitter tasting wet vegetable which increases the appetite), then nice fried things, then squash and white squash with ḍāla (dahl) and thick yogurt, and vegetables made from the flower of the banana tree. 5) Then there are fried squares of mung ḍāla paddy and urad ḍāla paddies (baḍā), capatis and rice with ghee. 8) Eating these nice foodstuffs, Kṛṣṇa feels great joy and ecstasy. Rādhārāṇī Herself cooks various kinds of vegetables. 9) Kṛṣṇa's brāhmaṇa friend Madhumaṅgala is very fond of lāḍḍus, and when he eats them he shouts, "Hari bol! Hari bol!" and makes a funny sound by slapping his sides under his armpits with his hands. 10) Rādhārāṇī and Her gopī friends greatly delight at how Kṛṣṇa takes prasāda at Yasodā's house.

11-14) After taking sweets, Kṛṣṇa is served with sweet drinks scented with rose water. Then all the friends of Kṛṣṇa line up to wash their hands and mouths, and Kṛṣṇa and Balarāma go to take rest. They take pan with fancy spices and catechu and very happily take Their rest and are fanned with a tail fan by His servant Viśālākṣa. 15) Śrī Dhaniṣṭhā is one of Kṛṣṇa's servants, and by Mother Yaśodā's orders he brings the prasāda that is left on Kṛṣṇa's plate, and Rādhārāṇī eats it. 16) Lalitā-sakhī and all the other gopīs also receive His prasāda and in their hearts also sing the glories of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. 17) Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura says: "There is no other happiness than that which is found in the pastimes of Śrī Hari."

2) On His right side is Lord Nityānanda, and on His left side is Śrī Gadādhara. On either side stand Lord Śrī Advaita and Śrīnivāsa who holds an umbrella over Lord Caitanya's head.

3) Lord Caitanya is seated on a golden throne. The ārati ceremony is performed by Lord Brahmā, and all the other demigods are present.

4) Lord Caitanya's associates like Narahari and others fan Him with a whisk, and Mukunda and Vāsu Ghosh are the expert singers that lead everyone in kīrtana.

5) The sounds of the conchshell, cymbals, and sweet mṛdaṅga are very relishable to hear.

6) Lord Caitanya's face shines like many, many millions of moons, and His garland of forest flowers also shines.

7) Lord Śiva, Śukadeva Gosvāmī, and Nārada Muni are there, and their voices are choked with transcendental loving symptoms. Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura says: "Just see the opulence of Lord Caitanya!"

They develop and they are degraded in different stages of happiness and pain all by Your sanction. 6) You are my protector and maintainer. I have no other wish but to attain Your feet. 7) By my own endeavor I have no hope. I am completely dependent on Your desires. 8) Śrīla Bhaktivinoda says: "I am a very small devotee with only You to depend on. By Your wish I have my life or death."

1) O venerable Vaiṣṇava, O ocean of mercy, be merciful unto your servant. Give me the shade of your lotus feet and purify me. I hold on to your lotus feet.

2) Teach me to control my six passions; rectify my six faults, bestow upon me the six qualities, and offer unto me the six kinds of holy association.* 3) I do not find the strength to carry on alone the saṅkīrtana of the holy name of Hari. Please bless me by giving me just one drop of faith with which to obtain the great treasure of the holy name of Kṛṣṇa. 4) Kṛṣṇa is yours; you have the power to give Him to me. I am simply running behind you shouting, “Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa!”

*The six passions are those pertaining to words, the mind, anger, the tongue, the stomach and the genitals. The six faults are overeating, attachment to material things, inability to follow regulative principles, sense gratification, useless idle talk, and impure habits. The six positive qualities are enthusiasm in practicing devotional service, firm faith in devotional processes, a strong desire to attain prema-bhakti, a favorable service attitude, avoidance of non-devotees, and appreciation of the company of devotees. The six methods of association are to go to an assembly of devotees, to invite devotees into one’s home, to discuss and hear devotional topics, to take the mahā-prasāda of devotees and to offer mahā-prasāda to devotees.

1) Once I spent long, long hours in the pastimes of scholarship. I never took to service of Your lotus feet as I do now. 2) Reading on and on, never finding satiation, I felt that knowledge would be the highest goal. That hope was false and fruitless—that knowledge was ignorance. 3) Materialistic studies are the glare of māyā only, for they are an obstacle to spiritual progress. The infatuated person is trapped in the nonpermanant world and falsely trying to enjoy it, and such studies make him as foolish as an ass.

4) When they are stretched out over a long period of time, one loses all energy and is sapped of all power to enjoy. By the time old age comes, nothing in the world is tasteful for such an ass. 5) Now at the end of life I realize that all my academic study is ignorance. Realization of this fact is burning like a piercing dart. 6) Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākura says: "Without Your lotus feet there is no value in the world. Reflecting upon my material studies, I take to Your lotus feet and superexcellence."

Where can anyone find such kindness? 3) Merely by the touch of the waters of the sacred Ganges one becomes liberated, even if he is the lowest of mankind; but just by seeing you, the same effect is achieved. Such is your quality. 4) If one commits an offense at the feet of Lord Hari, he can be forgiven if he chants the holy name. But if one offends you, there is no salvation for him. 5) In your heart Lord Govinda is always resting. Śrī Govinda Himself says, "I am the living force of My devotees." 6) I hope that in every birth I will obtain the dust of your lotus feet. Śrī Narottama prays, "Please, O Vaiṣṇava Gosvāmī, be kind unto me."

O Lord Hari, my life I've simply spoiled.
Although I've taken this rare human birth,
lika a miser, I've not served my Lord.
I've no love for You, Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa,
and so quite purposefully I've drunk poison.

From Goloka Vṛndāvana comes the chant of Hare Kṛṣṇa—
such spiritual sounds vibrate only from the planets of God.
How unlucky that I've no taste for nectar such as this,
no love for transcendental bliss.

All matter is on blazing fire, and it is always burning my heart.
Though ablaze, I've no desire to escape.
Though my mind and body burn,
I remain bound, trying to enjoy this holocaust.

Lord Caitanya, son of Mother Śacī, formerly son of Nanda Mahārāja,
has now appeared with Lord Nityānanda, formerly Balarāma.
They come chanting the holy names—Hari, Rāma, Kṛṣṇa.

Chanting Kṛṣṇa's names, They extricate all kinds of fallen, sinful entities from the blaze of this dark age of iron.
Even two drunkards, Jagāi and Mādhāi,
are delivered, purified by Their songs.

My Lord Kṛṣṇa, son of Nanda Mahārāja,
now You are before me with Rādhārāṅī, daughter of King Vṛṣabhānu. O Lord!
Please cast your glance of mercy upon me.
I Narottama dāsa, now plead to You, Lord.

Now I surrender to You fully.
Please don't kick Narottama dāsa away,
for he has no shelter but Your lotus feet.
Glance mercifully, O Lord, glance mercifully on Narottama dāsa, who is pleading at Your feet.

5) *bhāviyā dekhinu ei jagata-mājhāre

1) O Śrī Hari! O Lord of Rādhā! Be kind unto me again and again. Please, this time, take me to Your lotus feet. 2) Through many wombs have I traveled before surrendering to You. Please pick me up—I, who am unqualified. 3) You are the cause and divine force of the universe, and there is no other controller than You. O Supreme Lord, O bliss of Rādhā, 4) You are the only source of good fortune in this world, and You are its master. Please instruct me as to my true goal and resting place. 5) I have seen and considered this whole world, and without You, Kṛṣṇa, there is nothing that can save me.

A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda

This song was sung by Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura, a great devotee and ācārya in the Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇava-sampradāya, the disciplic succession coming down from Lord Caitanya. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura has written many songs which are recognized as authority by all Vaiṣṇavas. He has sung these songs in simple Bengali language, but the purport—the deep meaning of his songs—is very significant.

In this song he says, 'gaurāṅga' bolite ha'be pulaka śarira. One has attained the perfection of chanting when as soon as he chants the name of Lord Gaurāṅga, who initiated this saṅkīrtana movement, at once there is shivering in his body. This is not to be imitated, but Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura is asking, "When will that opportune moment come to us when there will be shivering of the body as soon as we chant Lord Gaurāṅga's name?" After the shivering: 'hari hari' bolite nayane ba'be nīra: "while chanting Hare Kṛṣṇa, there will be tears in the eyes."

Then he says, āra kabe nitāi-cāndera karuṇā hoibe. We are all asking about the mercy of Lord Nityānanda. Nityānanda is supposed to be the original spiritual master, so we have to approach Gaurāṅga, Lord Caitanya, through the mercy of Lord Nityānanda. What is the symptom of a person who has achieved the causeless mercy of Lord Nityānanda? Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says that the symptom of one who has actually received the causeless mercy of Lord Nityānanda is that he has no more material desire. Āra kabe nitāi-cāndera karuṇā hoibe soṁsāra-vāsanā mora kabe tuccha ha'be. Soṁsāra-vāsanā means desire for material enjoyment, and Narottama dāsa wonders when it will become very insignificant. Of course, as long as we have bodies we have to accept so many material things, but not in the spirit of enjoyment, but only to keep body and soul together.

Narottama dāsa says further, rūpa-raghunātha-pade hoibe ākuti: "When shall I be very much eager to study the books left by the six Gosvāmīs?" Ākuti means eagerness. Because Rūpa Gosvāmī is the father of devotional service, he has written a book called Bhakti-rasāmṛta-sindhu in which there are nice directions on devotional service. These topics are also dealt with in Caitanya-caritāmṛta and other books, and we have given the summary of those directions in our book, Teachings of Lord Caitanya. One has to learn of the conjugal loving affairs of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa through the teachings of these six Gosvāmīs. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura directs us not to try to understand the conjugal love of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa by our own endeavor. We should try to understand this yugala-pīriti, conjugal love, under the direction of the Gosvāmīs.

As long as the mind is too much absorbed in the materialistic thought, one cannot enter into the kingdom of Vṛndāvana. But Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says, viṣaya chāḍiyā kabe suddha habe mana kabe hāma herabo śrī-vṛndāvana: "When the mind is completely purified, being freed from material anxieties and desires, then I shall be able to understand Vṛndāvana and the conjugal love of Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa, and then my spiritual life will be successful."

PURPORT

by His Divine Grace

A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda

This song of Śrīla Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura is very famous among devotees in Bengal and Orissa. When Lord Caitanya returned from Gayā, where He was initiated by Śrī Tśvara Purī, He was completely transformed into a God-intoxicated personality whom His students of grammar had never known before. Instead of teaching ordinary grammar studies, Lord Caitanya explained every sentence in such a way that every Sanskrit word and every letter was understood to indicate Kṛṣṇa, the Supreme Personality of Godhead. This form of grammar was later on developed by Śrīla Jīva Gosvāmī in a book called Hari-nāmāmṛta-vyākaraṇa, The Grammar of the Nectar and Name of Śrī Hari. But Lord Caitanya's students thought that their teacher had become mad, and they rubbed His head with Viṣṇu oil, an oil that cools the brain. Finally they asked Him, "You say that everything means Kṛṣṇa and we should ultimately always be chanting the names of Kṛṣṇa. Just how should we do this?" Then Lord Caitanya began to sing the names of Kṛṣṇa and clap His hands, and He began His nāma-saṅkīrtana movement. The names He sang are the first two lines of this song, and Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura and others have placed these names in the beginning of their writings to immortalize these events in the memory of everyone.

Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura chants the names of Lord Caitanya, Nityānanda, Śrī Advaita and Sītā (Lord Advaita's consort). Since Lord Hari, the spiritual master and the Śrīmad Bhagavad-gītā are all on the transcendental platform, they are given the same respect. Then Śrīla Narottama dāsa chants the names of the six Gosvāmīs. "I offer my obeisances at their feet," he sings, "which destroy sufferings accumulated over many long years. I am the servant of these six Gosvāmīs, and the dust of their lotus feet is my five kinds of foodstuffs. To serve their lotus feet and keep the association of devotees is my only business, birth after birth." When the six Gosvāmīs were staying at Vṛndāvana, they revealed the eternal transcendental pastimes of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. Before Lord Caitanya the exact location of the places of Lord Kṛṣṇa's pastimes were not known, and therefore Lord Caitanya instructed the Gosvāmīs to uncover the holy places and construct temples. The temple of Śrī Rādhā-Dāmodara is situated near the location of the rāsa dance, and Śrīla Rūpa Gosvāmī and the other Gosvāmīs used to gather there and discuss the topics of their literatures, which scientifically explained the super-excellent pastimes of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. By revelation of the places of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa's pastimes, by excavation and by authoritative books, they revealed the pastimes of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says, "In great ecstasy shout the name of Hari and serve the real transcendental master and devotees." He concludes by saying, "With all hopes in the lotus feet of my guru and the holy Vaiṣṇavas, Narottama dāsa sings the saṅkīrtana of Lord Hari— Hare Kṛṣṇa, Hare Kṛṣṇa, Kṛṣṇa Kṛṣṇa, Hare Hare/ Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma Rāma, Hare Harè."

PURPORT

by His Divine Grace

A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda

This is a song by Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura in praise of the glories of Lord Caitanya. Gaurāṅga refers to Lord Caitanya, who has a fair complexion. One who has a fair complexion is called gaura, and since Lord Caitanya was very fair, just like molten gold, He was also named Gaurasundara. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says, gaurāṅgera duṭi pada, yāra dhana-sampada, se jāne bhakati-rasa-sāra. Anyone who has accepted the two lotus feet of Lord Caitanya can understand the true essence of devotional service. Devotional service is very difficult. It cannot be understood by any ordinary man. As it is stated in the Bhagavad-gītā, out of many thousands of persons who are trying to achieve the perfection of human life, only some actually become perfect and realize the self. And out of many thousands of such self-realized persons, only one can understand Kṛṣṇa. Without understanding Kṛṣṇa, how can one engage himself in the service of Kṛṣṇa? Therefore, the devotional service of Kṛṣṇa is not an ordinary thing. But, fortunately, if one follows in the footsteps of Lord Caitanya (gaurāṅgera duṭi pada) by following the path shown by Lord Caitanya—the process of simply chanting Hare Kṛṣṇa—he can very easily understand what devotional service is. Therefore, Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura prays that one take shelter of Lord Caitanya and follow in His footsteps, for then one can understand the essence of devotional service.

Lord Caitanya's pastimes are very pleasing because the basic principles of Lord Caitanya Mahāprabhu's movement are chanting, dancing and eating Kṛṣṇa prasāda. He made His headquarters in Jagannātha Purī and would dance, chant and then immediately call for prasāda to be distributed to the devotees. They were so pleased that every day hundreds of men would come to chant and dance with Lord Caitanya. The temple proprietor, the King of Orissa, Mahārāja Pratāparudra, had an open order to the workers in the temple to supply as much prasāda to Lord Caitanya's devotees as they wanted. Therefore, His pastimes are very pleasant: chant, dance and take prasāda. If one is captivated by the pastimes of Lord Caitanya, simply by chanting and dancing and eating prasāda the dirty things in his heart will all become cleansed. The heart of anyone who takes to this movement of chanting, dancing and eating Kṛṣṇa prasāda will surely be cleansed of all dirty material contamination. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says very rightly, gaurāṅgera madhura-līlā, yāra karṇe praveśilā, hṛdoy nirmala bhelo tāra: If one wants to cleanse his heart, he must take to the movement of Lord Caitanya, Kṛṣṇa consciousness.

Lord Caitanya is so nice that one who simply takes the holy name of Gaurasundara, Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya, will immediately develop love of God. Generally, devotees first chant śrī kṛṣṇa-caitanya prabhu nityānanda, for the preliminary process of cleansing the heart is to invoke the mercy of Lord Caitanya, Lord Nityānanda and Their associates. Līlā means "pastimes." Without associates there cannot be pastimes, so Caitanya Mahāprabhu is always accompanied by associates—Nityānanda, Advaita, Gadādhara, Śrīvāsa and many other devotees. Tāra means "his," hoḃ means "it is effected," and premodoy refers to development of love of God. Simply by chanting śrī kṛṣṇa-caitanya prabhu nityānanda one immediately develops love of God. To such a person Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says, "Bravo!" to encourage him in chanting Lord Caitanya's name and dancing: just as we clap and say, "Bravo!" similarly, he says, yāi balihāri: "Very nice. Excellent!"

Then he says, gaurāṅga-guṇete jhure, nitya-līlā tāre sphure: if one appreciates the merciful pastimes of Lord Caitanya and feels ecstasy and sometimes cries, this process will immediately help him to understand the pastimes of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa, which are called nitya-līlā. The loving affairs between Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa are not a temporary thing. Here in this material world we can see loving affairs between boys and girls, but that is temporary. That is simply for a few months, a few years, or maybe a little more. But then all that so-called love will go to hell. They are not permanent affairs. But if one really wants permanent love affairs, he must enter into the pastimes of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. Simply by appreciating Lord Caitanya's movement, one can immediately enter into or understand Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa's eternal pastimes. One who can understand the transcendental eternal pastimes of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa reaches the highest perfectional stage of devotional service.

The next line is gaurāṅgera saṅgi-gaṇe. Saṅgi-gaṇe means "associates." Lord Caitanya is always associated: He is not alone. We never see a picture of Lord Caitanya alone. At least there must be Lord Nityānanda or Gadādhara Paṇḍita. Actually, wherever Lord Caitanya was present, many thousands of devotees would assemble. Such devotees, especially those who were His nearest intimate associates, were nitya-siddha. In the devotional line there are three kinds of perfect devotees. One is called sādhana-siddha. This refers to a person who has very rigidly performed the regulative prescriptions and thereby reached the perfectional stage. Reaching the perfectional stage by executing the regulative principles is called sādhana-siddha. There is another devotee who is called kṛpā-siddha. He may not have executed the regulative principles very rigidly, but by his service mood he is specifically benedicted by the spiritual master or Kṛṣṇa. He is immediately promoted to the perfectional stage. This is called kṛpā-siddha. Nitya-siddha is one who was never contaminated by the material nature. The sādhana-siddhas and the kṛpā-siddhas were supposed to have once been in the contamination of material nature, but nitya-siddhas never came into contact with the material nature. All the associates of Caitanya

Mahāprabhu are nitya-siddhas, or eternally perfect. Nityānanda Prabhu is Balarāma, the immediate expansion of Kṛṣṇa. Advaita Prabhu is Mahā-Viṣṇu. He is also viṣṇu-tattva. Gadādhara Prabhu is an expansion of Rādhārāṇī, and Śrīvāsa is an incarnation of Nārada. They are nitya-siddha, or eternally perfect. They were never imperfect. They were never in contact with material contamination. We should understand that as Lord Caitanya Mahāprabhu, Kṛṣṇa Himself, is transcendental, similarly, His personal associates are also nitya-siddha, or eternally transcendental. Se yāya vrajendra-suta-pāśa. Vrajendra-suta means Kṛṣṇa. Simply by accepting that the associates of Lord Caitanya are eternally free, one can immediately be promoted to the transcendental abode of Lord Kṛṣṇa.

Śrī-gauḍa-maṇḍala-bhūmi. Gauḍa means West Bengal. Lord Caitanya appeared in West Bengal, Navadvīpa, and He especially flooded that part of the country with the saṅkīrtana movement. That part of the country has special significance, for it is non-different from Vṛndāvana. It is as good as Vṛndāvana. Living in Vṛndāvana and living in Navadvīpa are the same. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says, śrī-gauḍa-maṇḍala-bhūmi, yebā jāne cintāmaṇi. Cintāmaṇi means the transcendental abode. Tāra hoy vrajabhūme vāsa. If one simply understands that this land of Navadvīpa is not different from Vṛndāvana, then he actually lives in Vṛndāvana. One should not think that he is living in Bengal or any material country; the places where Lord Caitanya had His pastimes are as good as Vṛndāvana.

Lord Caitanya's distribution of this love of God is compared with an ocean (rasa-arṇava). What kind of ocean? Not this salty ocean that one cannot taste. The water of this ocean is so nice that if one drinks even one drop, he will like it more and more. It is not ordinary ocean water, of which one cannot taste even a drop. Therefore it is called rasārṇava. In that ocean there are different waves; an ocean does not stand still, for it is not impersonal or void. And as the ocean is always dancing with waves, similarly the ocean of transcendental love of Kṛṣṇa as introduced by Lord Caitanya has constant waves, constant sound. One has to dive deep into that ocean. If one knows the secret and says, "Let me dive deep into the ocean of the transcendental loving movement introduced by Lord Caitanya," he immediately becomes one of the confidential devotees of Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa.

Therefore Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura concludes this song by saying, gṛhe vā vanete thāke, 'hā gaurāṅga' bole ḍāke. It is not necessary that one become a mendicant or give up his family life and society. One can remain wherever he finds it suitable, whether as a householder, as a brahmacārī, as a vānaprastha or as a sannyāsī. Vānaprasthas and sannyāsīs are supposed to live outside of the city. Vanete means forest. Formerly, those who were in spiritual consciousness used to live in the forest to become free of the turmoil of city life. But that is not possible now. In this age, no one can go into the forest. That requires practice, and no one is practiced to that line. Therefore generally one is recommended to live with his friends, wife and children; that doesn't matter. But he must take to the process of Kṛṣṇa consciousness as introduced by Lord Caitanya. It is not difficult. The real thing is that one has to accept the movement of Lord Caitanya: chanting, dancing and eating Kṛṣṇa-prasāda. Even if one is in family life, there is no difficulty. He can just sit down, chant Hare Kṛṣṇa, dance nicely, and then take Kṛṣṇa-prasāda. Everyone can do this. Those who have renounced this world, sannyāsīs, also can do it; there is no difficulty. Therefore Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says that it doesn't matter whether one is a brahmacārī, gṛhastha or sannyāsī. He says, "If you have taken to these principles of life, I desire your company because you are a devotee of Lord Caitanya." In this way, Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura finishes the song.

ŚRĪ-GURU-CARAṆA-PADMA

The lotus feet of our spiritual master are the only way by which we can attain pure devotional service. I bow to his lotus feet with great awe and reverence. By his grace one can cross the ocean of material suffering and obtain the mercy of Kṛṣṇa.

2) *guru-mukha-padma-vākya, cittete koriyā aikya
ār nā koriho mane āśā
śrī-guru-caraṇe rati, ei sei uttama-gati,

My only wish is to have my consciousness purified by the words emanating from his lotus mouth. Attachment to his lotus feet is the perfection that fulfills all desires.

3) *cakḥudāna dilo yei, janme janme prabhu sei,

He opens my darkened eyes and fills my heart with transcendental knowledge. He is my Lord birth after birth. From him ecstatic prema emanates; by him ignorance is destroyed. The Vedic scriptures sing of his character.

4) *śrī-guru karuṇā-sindhu, adhama janāra bandhu,

Our spiritual master is the ocean of mercy, the friend of the poor, and the lord and master of the devotees. O master! Be merciful unto me. Give me the shade of your lotus feet. Your fame is spread all over the three worlds.

PURPORT

by His Divine Grace

A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda

This is a song composed by Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura. He prays to Lord Caitanya, "My dear Lord, please be merciful to me, because who can be more merciful than Your Lordship within these three worlds?" Actually, this is a fact. Not only Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura but Rūpa Gosvāmī also prayed to Lord Caitanya in this way. At the time of the first meeting of Lord Caitanya and Rūpa Gosvāmī at Prayāg (Allahabad), Śrīla Rūpa Gosvāmī said, "My dear Lord, You are the most munificent of all incarnations because You are distributing love of Kṛṣṇa, Kṛṣṇa consciousness." When Kṛṣṇa was personally present He simply asked us to surrender, but He did not distribute Himself so easily. He made conditions— "First of all you surrender." But this incarnation, Lord Caitanya, although Kṛṣṇa Himself, makes no such condition. He simply distributes: "Take love of Kṛṣṇa." Therefore Lord Caitanya is approved as the most munificent incarnation. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says, "Please be merciful to me. You are so magnanimous because You have seen the fallen souls of this age, and You are very much compassionate to them, but You should know also that I am the most fallen. No one is more greatly fallen than me." Patita-pāvana-hetu tava avatāra: "Your incarnation is just to reclaim the conditioned, fallen souls, but I assure You that You will not find a greater fallen soul than me. Therefore, my claim is first."

Then he prays to Lord Nityānanda. He says, hā hā prabhu nityānanda premānanda-sukhī. "My dear Lord Nityānanda, You are always joyful in spiritual bliss. Since You always appear very happy, I have come to You because I am most unhappy. If You kindly put Your glance over me, I may also become happy.” Then he prays to Advaita Prabhu. Dayā koro sītā-pati advaita gosāi. Advaita Prabhu’s wife’s name was Sītā. Therefore he is sometimes addressed as sītā-pati. Thus Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura prays, “My dear Advaita Prabhu, husband of Sītā, you are so kind. Please be kind to me. If you are kind to me, naturally Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda will also be kind to me.” Actually, Advaita Prabhu invited Lord Caitanya to come down. When Advaita Prabhu saw that the fallen souls were all engaged simply in sense gratificatory processes, not understanding Kṛṣṇa consciousness, he felt very much compassionate toward the fallen souls, and he also felt himself incapable of claiming them all. He therefore prayed to Lord Kṛṣṇa, “Please come Yourself. Without Your personal presence, it is not possible to deliver these fallen souls.” Thus by his invitation Lord Caitanya appeared. Naturally, Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura prays to Advaita Prabhu, “If you will be kind to me, naturally Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda also will be kind to me.”

Then he prays to the Gosvāmīs. Hā hā svarūpa, sanātana, rūpa, raghunātha. Svarūpa refers to Svarūpa Dāmodara, the personal secretary of Lord Caitanya. He was always with Caitanya Mahāprabhu, and he immediately arranged for whatever He wanted. Two personal attendants, Svarūpa Dāmodara and Govinda, were always constantly with Lord Caitanya. Therefore Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura also prays to Svarūpa Dāmodara and then to the six Gosvāmīs, the next disciples of Lord Caitanya—Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātana, Śrī Bhaṭṭa Raghunātha, Śrī Gopāla Bhaṭṭa Gosvāmī, Śrī Jīva Gosvāmī and Raghunātha dāsa Gosvāmī. These six Gosvāmīs were directly instructed by Lord Caitanya to spread this movement of Kṛṣṇa consciousness. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura also prays for their mercy.

After the six Gosvāmīs, the next ācārya was Śrīnivāsa Ācārya. Actually, Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura was in the disciplic succession after Śrīnivāsa Ācārya and was almost his contemporary, and his personal friend was Rāmacandra Cakravartī. Therefore he prays, “I always desire the company of Rāmacandra.” He desires a devotee’s company. The whole process is that we should always pray for the mercy of the superior ācāryas and keep company with pure devotees. Then it will be easier for us to advance in Kṛṣṇa consciousness and receive the mercy of Lord Caitanya and Lord Kṛṣṇa. This is the sum and substance of this song sung by Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura.

by His Divine Grace

A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda

This is a very nice song sung by Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura. He advises that nitāi-pada, the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda (kamala means lotus, and pada means feet), are a shelter where one will get the soothing moonlight not only of one but of millions of moons. We can just imagine the aggregate total value of the soothing shine of millions of moons. In this material world (jagat), which is progressing toward hell, there is always a blazing fire, and everyone is struggling hard without finding peace; therefore, if the world wants to have real peace, it should take shelter under the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda, which are cooling like the shining of a million moons. Juḍāya means relief. If one actually wants relief from the struggle of existence and actually wants to extinguish the blazing fire of material pangs, Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura advises, "Please take shelter of Lord Nityānanda."

What will be the result of accepting the shelter of the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda? He says, hena nitāi vine bhāi: unless one takes shelter under the shade of the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda, rādhā-kṛṣṇa pāite nāi—it will be very difficult for him to approach Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa. The aim of this Kṛṣṇa consciousness movement is to enable us to approach Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa and associate with the Supreme Lord in His sublime pleasure dance. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura advises that if one actually wants to enter into the dancing party of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa, he must accept the shelter of the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda.

Then he says, se sambandha nāhi. Sambandha means "connection" or "contact." Anyone who has not contacted a relationship with Nityānanda is understood to have spoiled his human birth. In another song also Narottama dāsa says, hari hari viphale janama gohāinu: anyone who does not approach Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa through a relationship with Nityānanda has uselessly spoiled his life. Bṛthā means “useless.” Janma means “life.” Tāra means “his,” and sambandha means “relationship.” Anyone who does not make a relationship with Nityānanda is simply spoiling the boon of his human form of life. Why is he spoiling it? Sei paśu baḍo durācāra. Sei means “that,” paśu means “animal,” and durācāra means “misbehaved” or “the most misbehaved.” Without elevation to Kṛṣṇa consciousness through the mercy of Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda, life is simply spoiled for the animal propensities of sense gratification. Narottama dāsa says that ordinary animals can be tamed, but when a human being is animalistic, having only animal propensities, he is most horrible, for he cannot be tamed. Ordinary cats and dogs or even a tiger can be tamed, but when a human being goes out of his way and neglects to take to the human activity of Kṛṣṇa consciousness, his higher intelligence will simply be misused for animal propensities, and it is very difficult to tame him. The enactment of state laws cannot make a thief an honest man; because his heart is polluted, he cannot be tamed. Every man sees that a person who commits criminal offenses is punished by the government, and also in scriptural injunctions punishment in hell is mentioned. But despite hearing from scripture and seeing the action of the state laws, the demoniac cannot be tamed.

What are they doing? Nitāi nā bolilo mukhe.

Since they do not know who Nityānanda is, they never say the names of Lord Nityānanda and Lord Caitanya. Majilo soṁsāra-sukhe. Majilo means “becomes absorbed.”

They become absorbed in so-called material enjoyment. They don’t care who Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda are, and therefore they go deep down into material existence. Vidyā-kule ki koribe tāra: if one has no connection with Nityānanda, and if he does not come to Kṛṣṇa consciousness, his vidyā, or his so-called academic education, and kule, birth in a high family or great nation, will not protect him. Regardless of whether one is born in a very big family or nation or has a very advanced academic education, at the time of death nature’s law will act, his work will be finished, and he will get another body according to that work.

Why are these human animals acting in this way? Ahaṅkāre matta hoiñā, nitāi-pada pāsariyā. They have become maddened by a false concept of bodily life, and thus they have forgotten their eternal relationship with Nityānanda. Asatyere satya kori māni: such forgetful persons accept the illusory energy as factual. Asatyere refers to that which is not a fact, or, in other words, māyā. Māyā means that which has no existence but is a temporary illusion only. Persons who have no contact with Nityānanda accept this illusory body as factual.

Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura then says, nitāira karuṇā habe, braje rādhā-kṛṣṇa pābe: “If you actually want to approach the association of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa, you must achieve the mercy of Lord Nityānanda first. When He is merciful toward you, then you will be able to approach Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa." Dhara nitāi-caraṇa du'khāni. Narottama dāsa advises that one firmly catch the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda.

Then again he says, nitāi-caraṇa satya. One should not misunderstand and think that as he has caught hold of māyā, similarly the lotus feet of Nityānanda may also be something like that māyā or illusion. Therefore Narottama dāsa confirms, nitāi-caraṇa satya: The lotus feet of Nityānanda are not illusion; they are a fact. Tāhāra sevaka nitya: and one who engages in the transcendental loving service of Nityānanda is also transcendental. If one engages in the transcendental loving service of Nityānanda in Kṛṣṇa consciousness, he immediately achieves his transcendental position on the spiritual platform, which is eternal and blissful. Therefore he advises, nitāi-pada sadā koro āśa: always try to catch the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda.

Narottamo baḍo dukhī. Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura, the ācārya, is taking the position that he is very unhappy. Actually, he is representing ourselves. He says, "My dear Lord, I am very unhappy." Nitāi more koro sukhī: "Therefore I am praying to Lord Nityānanda to make me happy." Rākha rāṅgā-caraṇera pāśa. "Please keep me in a corner of Your lotus feet."

1) The lotus feet of Śrī Rūpa Mañjarī are my treasure, my devotional service, and my object of worship. 2) They give my life meaning, and they are the life of my life. 3) They are the perfection of rasa, and they are perfection worthy of attainment. They are the very law of the Vedic scriptures for me. 4) They are the meaning of all my fasts and penances and my silent utterings of my mantras. They are the basis of religion and activities. 5) By the purifying process of favorable devotional service one will attain perfection and with these two eyes be able to see. 6) His transcendental form is shining like moonlight in my heart, and my heart therefore shines and reciprocates. In other words, the ordinary moon lights up the night, and its shine illuminates other objects; but the moon of the effulgence of the form of Śrī Rūpa Mañjarī shines into the heart and makes the heart also shine back to the spiritual sky. This moon shines not only in the nighttime, but day and night. 7) Your absence from my vision is like a dose of strong poison, and I will suffer till the end of my life. 8) Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura says: "Please give me your mercy and the shade of your lotus feet."

Vṛndāvana is a transcendental beautiful place. It is in the spiritual sky, where everything is made of touchstone, which fulfills all desires. All the temples there are bedecked with costly jewels. In that far distant place is the River Yamunā, which is full of lotus flowers. In the midst of that throng of lotus flowers there is a golden boat, appearing like another big lotus flower, with eight petals, who are none but the eight chief gopīs who always surround Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa. In the surrounding petals there is a golden throne where the two transcendental lovers, namely Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa, are seated, but of all of them the governing Deity is Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī. There is no comparison to Rādhārāṇī's beauty and the luster of Her transcendental body. The so-called beauty of the moon has fallen on the ground in the presence of Rādhārāṇī's beauty. In that assembly of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa and Their principal associates there is a flood of laughing and joking as they address one another. Narottama dāsa says that the eternal pastimes of Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa from day to day are full of transcendental pleasure. Let us all remember them now and then and thus become happy even in this material world.

These are the names of the famous seven temples of Vṛndāvana and the ācāryas who founded them. Śrī Lokanātha, Śrī Madhupaṇḍita and Śyāmānanda Gosvāmī were associates of Śrīnivāsa Ācārya, and their history is in a book called the Bhakti-ratnākara. Prāṇa-dhana means "the lord of one's life." The Deities of Rādhā-Govinda, Gopīnātha, etc., are the Lords of Their ācāryas' lives. The Gosvāmīs and ācāryas were all perfectly realized souls, and as such their vision of the Deity was not obstructed by any material conception. Thus they could hear the Deity speaking to them and see the Deity's pastimes.

ŚRĪ-DĀMODARĀṢṬAKA
by Śrī Satyavrata Muni

*namāmīśvaraṁ sac-cid-ānanda-rūpaṁ

karāmbhoja-yugmena sātaṅka-netram muhuḥ śvāsa-kampa-trirekhāṅka-kaṅṭha-sthita-graiva-dāmodaraṁ bhakti-baddham*

This eight śloka prayer is sung morning and evening during the month of Dāmodara.

1) To the supreme controller who possesses an eternal form of blissful knowledge, whose glistening earrings swing to and fro, who manifested Himself in Gokula, who stole the butter that the gopīs kept hanging from the rafters of their storerooms and who then quickly jumped up and ran in retreat in fear of Mother Yaśodā but was ultimately caught—to that Supreme Lord, Śrī Dāmodara, I offer my humble obeisances.

2) Upon seeing His mother's whipping stick, He cried and rubbed His eyes again and again with His two lotus hands. His eyes were fearful and His breathing quick, and as Mother Yaśodā bound His belly with ropes, He shivered in fright and His pearl necklace shook. To this Supreme Lord, Śrī Dāmodara, who is bound with His devotee's love, I offer my humble obeisances.

*itīdrk sva-līlābhir ānanda-kuṇḍe

*varam deva mokṣaṁ na mokṣāvadhiṁ vā na cānyaṁ vṛṇe 'haṁ vareśād apīha idaṁ te vapur nātha gopāla-bālaṁ
sadā me manasy āvirāstāṁ kim anyaiḥ*

3) Those superexcellent pastimes of Lord Kṛṣṇa's babyhood drowned the inhabitants of Gokula in pools of ecstasy. To the devotees who are attracted only to His majestic aspect of Nārāyaṇa in Vaikuṅṭha, the Lord herein reveals: "I am conquered and overwhelmed by pure loving devotion." To the Supreme Lord, Dāmodara, my obeisances hundreds and hundreds of times.

4) O Lord, although You are able to give all kinds of benedictions, I do not pray to You for liberation, nor eternal life in Vaikuṅṭha, nor any other boon. My only prayer is that Your childhood pastimes may constantly appear in my mind. O Lord, I do not even want to know Your feature of Paramātmā. I simply wish that Your childhood pastimes may ever be enacted in my heart.

*idaṁ te mukhāmbhojam atyanta-nīlair

muḥś cumbitaṁ bimba-raktā-dharaṁ me

*namo deva dāmodarānanta viṣṇo

kṛpā-dṛṣṭi-vṛṣṭyātīdīnaṁ batānu gṛhāṇeśā mām ajñam edhy akṣi-dṛśyaḥ*

5) O Lord, the cheeks of Your blackish lotus face, which is encircled by locks of curling hair, have become reddened like bimba fruit due to Mother Yaśodā's kisses. What more can I describe than this? Millions of opulences are of no use to me, but may this vision constantly remain in my mind.

6) O unlimited Viṣṇu! O master! O Lord! Be pleased upon me! I am drowning in an ocean of sorrow and am almost like a dead man. Please shower the rain of mercy on me; uplift me and protect me with Your nectarean vision.

*kuverātmajau baddha-mūrtyaiva yadvat
tvayā mocitau bhakti-bhājau kṛtau ca tathā prema-bhaktiṁ svakāṁ me prayaccha na mokṣe graho me 'sti dāmodareha*

*namas te 'stu dāmne sphurad-dīpti-dhāmne tvadīyodarāyātha viśvasya dhāmne namo rādhikāyai tvadīya priyāyai
namo 'nanta-līlāya devāya tubhyam*

7) O Lord Dāmodara, in Your form as a baby Mother Yaśodā bound You to a grinding stone with a rope for tying cows. You then freed the sons of Kuvera, Maṇigrīva, and Nalakuvera, who were cursed to stand as trees, and You gave them the chance to become Your devotees. Please bless me in this same way. I have no desire for liberation into Your effulgence.

8) O Lord, the entire universe was created by Lord Brahmā, who was born from Your abdomen, which was bound with a rope by Mother Yaśodā. To this rope I offer my humble obeisances. I offer my obeisances to Your most beloved Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī and to Your unlimited pastimes.

Lord Kṛṣṇa enlightened the four-faced Brahmā with the devotional science, which Brahmā then passed on to Nārada Muni. In the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, Second Canto, Ninth Chapter, the history of how Lord Brahmā received initiation directly from Kṛṣṇa is explained. Brahmā found himself in the midst of darkness. He tried to explore the dark universe by traveling down the stem of the lotus planet of his birth, but, being only a jīva with limited senses, intellect, and power, he failed to find more than darkness. Brahmā then heard the syllables ta and pa from outside the covering of the universe, and following this instruction, he performed tapasya, or penance, by which the spiritual realm was revealed to him. The four seed verses of the Bhāgavatam were transmitted by the Lord Himself to Brahmā. The conclusion is that Brahmā could not understand anything by his own attempt; only by Lord Kṛṣṇa's revelation could Brahmā get absolute knowledge.

Lord Brahmā took to the disciplic succession naturally. He initiated Nārada Muni, who in turn initiated Vyāsadeva, the compiler of all Vedic literatures. It is recorded in the Bhāgavatam, First Canto, Fifth Chapter, that Vyāsadeva compiled the Vedas in four divisions and then wrote the Mahābhārata, Purāṇas, and Upaniṣads, and revealed the conclusion of knowledge in the Vedānta-sūtras. Yet as he meditated he did not feel satisfied, and Nārada Muni explained to him that this was because he had not described the līlās, forms, qualities, etc., of Lord Kṛṣṇa. Then Vyāsadeva expanded the four seed verses of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam into 18,000 verses, and then initiated Madhvācārya. Vyāsadeva is still living in the Himalayas at Badarikāśrama, and, therefore, there is no gap of time between Vyāsa and Madhva; they are contemporaries, just as we are contemporaries of Vyāsa, who is presently in this world. The ācāryas coming from Madhva are Padmanābha, Nṛhari, Mādhava, Akṣobhya, Jayatīrtha, Jñānasindhu, Dayānidhi, Vidyanidhi, Rājendra, Jayadharmā, Puruṣottama, Brahmaṇya-tīrtha, Vyāsātīrtha, Lakṣmīpati, and Mādhavendra Purī. (Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa, the great ācārya who wrote the commentary on Vedānta-sūtra after hearing it directly from the Deity Govindajī, has confirmed Mādhavendra Purī's connection with the Madhva-sampradāya.)

Mādhavendra Purī had several disciples who were highly transcendental personalities. Lord Nityānanda, the incarnation of Lord Balarāma, and Śrī Advaita, the incarnation of Mahā-Viṣṇu, accepted initiation from him. However, Śrī Tīśvara Purī possessed a very high standard of devotion and would even clean the toilet place for his spiritual master. Thus Tīśvara Purī was given the seat of ācārya. He in turn initiated Lord Caitanya, who is none other than Rādhā-Kṛṣṇa Himself and who is the living force of the followers of Rūpa Gosvāmī. Lord Caitanya is succeeded by Rūpa Gosvāmī along with Svarūpa Dāmodara and Sanātana Gosvāmī, then Raghunātha dāsa and Jīva Gosvāmī, Kṛṣṇadāsa Kavirāja, Narottama dāsa Ṭhākura, and Viśvanātha Cakravartī Ṭhākura. Viśvanātha Cakravartī was the spiritual master of Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa and Jagannātha dāsa Bābājī. Jagannātha dāsa's most beloved disciple is Śrīla Sac-cid-ānanda Bhaktivinoda, who empowered Śrīla Gaurakīśora dāsa Bābājī, an uttama-adhikārī mahā-bhāgavata (great devotee of the highest order), to initiate Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī Ṭhākura, who is also spiritually named Śrī Vārṣabhānavī-dayita dāsa. I have added one more line to this song: "His foremost disciple-preacher is Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda, who has spread the message of Lord Caitanya throughout the entire world."

Glories, glories to Śrī Rādhārāṇī, the beloved of Mādhava and most worshipable of the cowherd girls of Gokula Maṇḍala!

Decorated by the dress of Lord Dāmodara's increasing ecstasy, You are the lady of the house of Lord Hari and the groves of Vṛndāvana.

From the ocean of Vṛṣabhānu has arisen a new moon which is overwhelming the qualities of Lalitā and Viśākhā.

O Goddess, Your qualities are described by Sanaka and Sanātana Ṛṣis and by Sanātana Gosvāmī. Please bestow Your mercy upon me.

PURPORT

by His Divine Grace

A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupāda

This is a song by Locana dāsa Ṭhākura. Pahuñ means “Lord”, and dui jana means “two.” Locana dāsa Ṭhākura declares that the two Lords Nitāi-Gauracandra—Lord Nitāi and Lord Caitanya—are very merciful (parama karuṇa). Saba avatāra-, sāra-śīromaṇi. Avatāra means “incarnation,” and saba means “all.” They are the essence of all incarnations. The specific significance of these incarnations is that prosecuting Their way of self-realization is simply joyful (kevala-ānanda-kanda), for They introduced chanting and dancing. There are many incarnations like Lord Rāma and even Kṛṣṇa, Who taught Bhagavad-gītā—which requires knowledge and understanding. But Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda introduced a process that is simply joyful—which is simply to chant and dance. Therefore, Locana dāsa requests everyone: bhaja bhaja bhāi, caitanya-nitāi. “My dear brother, I request that you just worship Lord Caitanya and Nityānanda with firm conviction and faith.” Don’t think that this chanting and dancing will not lead to the desired goal. It will. It is the assurance of Lord Caitanya Mahāprabhu that one will get all perfection by this process. Therefore one must chant with firm faith and conviction (viśvāsa kori).

But what is the process? The process is viśaya chāḍiyā, se rase majiyā. If one wants to be Kṛṣṇa conscious by this process, one has to give up his engagement in sense gratification. That is the only restriction.

If one gives up sense gratification, it is sure that he will reach the desired goal. Mukhe bolo hari hari: one simply has to chant Hare Kṛṣṇa, Hari Hari, without any motive of sense gratification.

Dekha ore bhāi, tri-bhuvane nāi. Locana dāsa Ṭhākura says, “My dear brother, you just try and examine this. Within the three worlds there is no one like Lord Caitanya or Lord Nityānanda because Their merciful qualities are so great that They make even birds and beasts cry, not to speak of human beings.” Actually, when Lord Caitanya passed through the forest known as Jharikhaṇḍa, the tigers, elephants, snakes, deer, and all other animals joined Him in chanting Hare Kṛṣṇa. It is so nice that anyone can join. Even the animals can join, not to speak of human beings. Of course, it is not possible for ordinary men to induce animals to chant, but if Caitanya Mahāprabhu could inspire animals to chant, at least we can encourage human beings to adopt this path of Hare Kṛṣṇa mantra chanting. It is so nice that even the most stonehearted man will be melted. Pāṣāṇa means “stone.” It is so nice that even stone will melt.

But Locana dāsa Ṭhākura regrets that he is entrapped by sense gratification. He addresses himself, “My dear mind, you are entrapped in this sense gratification process, and you have no attraction for chanting Hare Kṛṣṇa. Since you have no attraction for the lotus feet of Lord Caitanya and Lord Nityānanda, what can I say? I can simply think of my misfortune. Yamarāja, the superintendent of death, is punishing me by not allowing me to be attracted by this movement.”

O Tulasī, beloved of Kṛṣṇa, I bow before you again and again. The only desire left in me is to serve Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa. O dweller of Vṛndāvana, the wishes of all those who seek your favor are fulfilled. Bestow your kindness upon me. I wish you to live in my small garden and remain green forever. O storehouse of beauty, I am your follower and sakhī. Pray that by making me your maidservant, as a servant of Kṛṣṇa, this body will be His—not mine. Bless me, that in this body may dwell only love for Rādhā and Kṛṣṇa.

Worshipable Tulasī Devī, O Vṛndā Devī, obeisances unto thee again and again. All praises, O mother of bhakti. O Nārāyaṇī [energy of Nārāyaṇa], my humble obeisances to thee again and again. Simply by touching or by even seeing Śrī Tulasī-devī, all sins are destroyed. My obeisances to thee again and again, whose magnificence is described in the Vedas and Purāṇas. Your ārati is performed with offerings of incense and lamps, flowers and praises. My obeisances to thee again and again. You have performed long austerities and have become the offering to the Lord's śālagrāma expansion. My obeisances to thee again and again. The Lord does not care for a single one of fifty-six offerings or thirty-six curries offered without a tulasī leaf. Lord Śiva, Śukadeva, Nārada Muni, Brahmā and all others are paying their respects unto thee. Candrasekhara (the author), who is singing your glories, prays, "Please bestow prema-bhakti unto me. My humble obeisances unto thee again and again."

(1) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a fish! All glories to You! You easily acted as a boat in the form of a giant fish just to give protection to the Vedas, which had become immersed in the turbulent sea of devastation.

(2) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a tortoise! All glories to You! In this incarnation as a divine tortoise the great Mandara Mountain rests upon Your gigantic back as a pivot for churning the ocean of milk. From holding up the huge mountain a large scarlike depression is put in Your back, which has become most glorious.

(3) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a boar! All glories to You! The earth, which had become immersed in the Garbhodaka Ocean at the bottom of the universe, sits fixed upon the tip of Your tusk like a spot upon the moon.

(4) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of half-man, half-lion! All glories to You! Just as one can easily crush a wasp between one's fingernails, so in the same way the body of the wasplike demon Hiranyakasipu has been ripped apart by the wonderful pointed nails on Your beautiful lotus hands.

(5) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of a dwarf-brahmana! All glories to You! O wonderful dwarf, by Your massive steps You deceive King Bali, and by the Ganges water that has emanated from the nails of Your lotus feet, You deliver all living beings within this world.

(6) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Bhrgupati [Parasurama]! All glories to You! At Kurukshetra You bathe the earth in the rivers of blood from the bodies of the demoniac ksatriyas that You slain. The sins of the world are washed away by You, and because of You people are relieved from the blazing fire of material existence.

(7) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Ramacandra! All glories to You! In the battle of Lanka You destroy the ten-headed demon Ravana and distribute his heads as a delightful offering to the presiding deities of the ten directions, headed by Indra. This action was long desired by all of them, who were much harassed by this monster.

(8) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Balarama, the wielder of the plow! All glories to You! On Your brilliant white body You wear garments the color of a fresh blue rain cloud. These garments are colored like the beautiful dark hue of the River Yamuna, who feels great fear due to the striking of Your plowshare.

(9) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Buddha! All glories to You! O Buddha of compassionate heart, you decry the slaughtering of poor animals performed according to the rules of Vedic sacrifice.

(10) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed the form of Kalki! All glories to You! You appear like a comet and carry a terrifying sword for bringing about the annihilation of the wicked barbarian men at the end of the Kali-yuga.

(11) O Kesava! O Lord of the universe! O Lord Hari, who have assumed these ten different forms of incarnation! All glories to You! O readers, please hear this hymn of the poet Jayadeva, which is most excellent, an awarder of happiness, a bestower of auspiciousness, and is the best thing in this dark world.

(12) O Lord Krsna, I offer my obeisances unto You, who appear in the forms of these ten incarnations. In the form of Matsya You rescue the Vedas, and as Kurma You bear the Mandara Mountain on Your back. As Varaha You lift the earth with Your tusk, and in the form of Narasimha You tear open the chest of the daitya Hiranyakasipu. In the form of Vamana You trick the daitya king Bali by asking him for only three steps of land, and then You take away the whole universe from him by expanding Your steps. As Parasurama You slay all of the wicked ksatriyas, and as Ramacandra You conquer the raksasa king Ravana. In the form of Balarama You carry a plow with which You subdue the wicked and draw toward You the River Yamuna. As Lord Buddha You show compassion toward all the living beings suffering in this world, and at the end of the Kali-yuga You appear as Kalki to bewilder the mlecchas [degraded low-class men].

(1) O mind, just worship the lotus of the son of Nanda, which make one fearless. Having obtained this rare human birth, cross over this ocean of worldly existence through the association of saintly persons.

(2) Both in the day and at night I remain sleepless, suffering the pains of the heat and cold, the wind and the rain. For a fraction of flickering happiness I have uselessly served wicked and miserly men.

(3) What assurance of real happiness is there in all of one's wealth, youthfulness, sons, and family members? This life is tottering like a drop of water on a lotus petal; therefore you should always serve and worship the divine feet of Lord Hari.

(4) It is the desire and great longing of Govinda dasa to engage himself in the nine processes of bhakti, namely hearing the glories of Lord Hari and chanting those glories, constantly remembering Him and offering prayers to Him, serving the Lord's lotus feet, serving the Supreme Lord as a servant, worshiping Him with flowers and incense and so forth, serving Him as a friend, and completely offering the Lord one's very self.
